Beaverton Police Host Crosswalk Diversion Program

Part of the Beaverton Police Departments goal is to make Beaverton a safer place to drive and walk. We have developed a program that provides drivers with an opportunity to attend an educational class, if you have received a traffic citation for failing to yield to a pedestrian in a crosswalk.

Once you have successfully completed this class and paid the diversion fee, the case will be dismissed and there will be no conviction on your driving record.

We hope that this class will help to educate the public on pedestrian safety.

The class will be held at the Beaverton City Library starting on Wednesday March 21, 2012 at 6:00 p.m. and will be repeated every three months. This class is being taught by members of the Beaverton Police Traffic Safety Division.
